

Announcement

February 2011

● LYNNETTE BOBER

We are delighted to announce the appointment of Lynnette Bober as a private client tax director at the London office.

Lynnette is a chartered accountant, a chartered tax adviser, and a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners. Having qualified at Rees Pollock she then moved to Rawlinson & Hunter, and now rejoins the firm following a period at Smith & Williamson. Specialising in the field of personal taxation and trusts (including remittance basis issues and offshore trust planning), she contributes to various technical publications and journals.

Lynnette is a member of the ICAEW Tax Faculty Committee and serves in various capacities on a number of the Tax Faculty's technical subcommittees and working parties. She won the Rising Star award at the 2009 Lexis Nexis Taxation Awards.

