

Announcement

01 April 2006

● SALLY OUSLEY

We are delighted to announce that Sally Ousley will become a partner in the UK firm on 1 April 2006.

Sally joined Rawlinson & Hunter in April 2000 having trained with KPMG and Smith & Williamson where she was involved with onshore tax planning for UK resident individuals and trusts as well as UK partnerships. She qualified as a Chartered Tax Adviser in 1995.

Since joining Rawlinson & Hunter, Sally has worked extensively with offshore structures and specialises in providing advice on all aspects of UK taxation and estate planning to clients resident and domiciled within and outside the UK. Sally has gained considerable expertise in dealing with individuals whose affairs involve multiple jurisdictions. She has forged particularly close working links with Switzerland and the US as well as the Channel Islands and the major Caribbean jurisdictions. Sally's experience and knowledge in this area will complement the Firm's pre-eminence in its work with international clients generally.

appointment

