

TAX PARTNER APPOINTMENTS

Rawlinson & Hunter announces the promotion of private client tax specialists Paul Huggins and Trevor Warmington to partner, with effect from 1 October 2017.

Paul has been with the Firm for more than a decade as a tax specialist chartered accountant, and he has been managing the London private client tax team for the past few years. Renowned for his superb management and client handling skills, as well as his deep, practical knowledge of private client taxation, Paul contributes key problem-solving and tax technical expertise to the Firm's award-winning* private client tax team.

Trevor has been a private client tax specialist for more than a decade, and he specialises in the taxation of non-domiciliaries, remittances, residence, trusts and life assurance. Trevor is an Oxford graduate and a fluent French and Spanish speaker, and his in-depth knowledge of the taxation of private clients and entrepreneurs means that he contributes key technical expertise to the Firm's award-winning* private client tax team.

Rawlinson & Hunter managing partner, Mark Harris, said, "Our new tax partners, Paul Huggins and Trevor Warmington, bring excellent technical and problem-solving skills to the Firm, and I have every confidence that they will be superb tax partners serving the Firm's private clients over the coming decades."

The Firm was the winner of Best UK Firm for Private Client Personal Taxation at the 2015 IBFD International Tax Awards and also won Tax Advisory Firm of The Year, Trust Company of the Year and the winner of Accountancy Firm of the Year at the 2017 Citywealth Awards.*
