

RAWLINSON & HUNTER PARTNER TREVOR WARMINGTON WINS EDITOR'S CHOICE AWARD

News Release - 6th November 2017

On Wednesday 1st November, Rawlinson & Hunter's new partner Trevor Warmington won the prestigious Editor's Choice Award - at the annual Citywealth Future Leaders awards in London. Having been originally nominated for the Accountant of the Year award, Trevor was selected personally by Karen Jones to win The Editor's Choice Award.

Commenting on winning the award, Trevor Warmington said:

"I am delighted to have won the award. Having recently become a partner of Rawlinson & Hunter, it is an invaluable privilege to have the support and recognition of an institution like Citywealth, who do so much for the private wealth sector."

Commenting on Trevor's win, Rawlinson & Hunter strategy partner Andrew Shilling said:

"This is an incredible honour for Trevor, and we are immensely proud of his achievement. Trevor's tax knowledge is second to none, and we are confident that this will enable him to continue with even greater success in future."
