

RAWLINSON & HUNTER LLP ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTORS

Rawlinson & Hunter LLP has pleasure in announcing the promotions of Hiral Kanzaria and William Watson to Director, with effect from 1 October 2020.

Hiral Kanzaria (Business Tax)

Hiral is a Business Tax specialist based in Rawlinson & Hunter's London office.

Hiral provides business tax advisory and compliance services to a diverse range of clients, including businesses involved in technology, investment banking, scientific research and art. His clients range from owner managed SMEs to large multinational groups.

Hiral advises on a broad range of corporate and business tax areas, including R&D tax incentives, employee share schemes, corporate restructuring, tax risk management, venture capital schemes, partnerships and international taxation.

William Watson (Corporate Services)

William is a Corporate Services specialist in Rawlinson & Hunter's Leatherhead office.

William is an audit specialist whose clients include FCA registered entities, commodity, property and leisure companies. He also has extensive experience in undertaking multinational group audit assignments and client money audits.

William also undertakes technical accounting assignments such as IFRS 2 share option valuations, IFRS conversions and changes in presentation, and handling functional currencies. William has also undertaken the duties of the Corporate Controller of AIM and TSX listed entities, so has experience of the audit process from the other side of the fence.

Andrew Shilling, Managing Partner of Rawlinson & Hunter LLP, commented:

"We are delighted to announce these well-deserved director promotions at Rawlinson & Hunter LLP. They showcase the exceptional talent we have at the Firm and our commitment to invest in them as individuals. The wealth of knowledge and experience between Hiral and William will continue to contribute enormous strength to the tax, audit and corporate services of the Firm."
