

RAWLINSON & HUNTER LLP APPOINTS CATHERINE THOMPSON AS PARTNER

1 October 2020

Rawlinson & Hunter LLP is delighted to announce the promotion of corporate specialist Catherine Thompson to partner, with effect from 1 October 2020.

Catherine joined the Firm in 2005 after qualifying as a Chartered Accountant and has extensive experience in providing accounting and tax compliance services together with full financial outsourcing to SME and entrepreneurial clients. She provides an efficient, responsive and high end bespoke service allowing business owners to concentrate on running their business whilst we look after the finances. Her portfolio includes a substantial number of top London art galleries and art sector clients which form part of our Firm's dedicated art practice.

In 2012 Catherine completed the indirect tax qualification and now specialises in handling complex VAT transactions with particular expertise in structuring cross border transactions in the art sector.

Catherine Thompson commented:

"I am delighted to become a partner in Rawlinson & Hunter LLP, and I am looking forward to helping steer the Firm's clients through their current challenges as the economy revives."

Andrew Shilling, Managing Partner of Rawlinson & Hunter LLP, commented:

"Catherine brings a wealth of knowledge and experience in VAT accounting and financial outsourcing services for SMEs, entrepreneurs and clients in the art sector."

"Her appointment demonstrates our confidence in the continued growth of our practice during these unprecedented times. I have no doubt Catherine will be a superb partner servicing the Firm's clients over the coming years."
