RAWLINSON & HUNTER LLP CELEBRATES WINNING ACCOUNTANCY FIRM & TAX ADVISORY FIRM OF THE YEAR

Accountancy firm Rawlinson & Hunter LLP has won two prestigious awards - Accountancy Firm of the Year and Tax Advisory Firm of the Year - at the 2020 Citywealth Magic Circle Awards, warding off stiff competition from strong rival firms. This is the second year running that the Firm has won these prestigious awards, and the third time in four years.

The Magic Circle Awards are held annually to find the best advisors and managers in the global private wealth industry.

Commenting on winning the awards, Rawlinson & Hunter LLP's Managing Partner, Andrew Shilling, said:

"We are absolutely thrilled with these awards. They are a testament to all of our staff who have worked extremely hard behind the scenes to make the process as smooth as possible for our clients. Their exceptional skills, experience and dedication have helped us to deliver the highest quality service during the current pandemic crisis to each and every client who has entrusted us with their tax, accounting and trust affairs. This is a fantastic result.

"Tax advice is the lynchpin service for the Firm and we pride ourselves on delivering a consistent, high quality, and rigorous service. We have also continued to expand the depth and breadth of the tax expertise we offer, but without losing the personal service ethos that has always been the cornerstone of our approach. This award reflects these considerable achievements as well as the Firm's consistent excellence in delivering an essential tax service to our clients."

Mark Harris, Rawlinson & Hunter LLP's Senior Partner, added:

"These are major achievements for the Firm which was up against very strong competition in all categories, and is a testament to the Firm's outstanding success in continuing to operate highly effectively during the pandemic crisis. Congratulations to everybody."
