

RAWLINSON & HUNTER GUERNSEY APPOINTS CIARAN O'NEILL AS PARTNER

Rawlinson & Hunter is delighted to announce the promotion of Executive Director Ciaran O'Neill to partner, with effect from 1 June 2021.

Ciaran joined Rawlinson & Hunter in 2020 from Credit Suisse where he was Global Head of Trust Management and had held senior roles in Singapore, London and Guernsey. Ciaran is a member of STEP and the Institute of Directors. His client portfolio at R&H includes UHNW entrepreneurs, international family office clients and high profile sports personalities.

Ciaran O'Neill commented:

"I am delighted at becoming a partner at Rawlinson & Hunter and am looking forward to working further with our existing clients and contributing to our firm's continued growth. We have seen a real demand from clients for proper service with senior attention. Alasdair (Cross) has already built a great team in Guernsey and the opportunity for success at our firm is energising and exciting."

Alasdair Cross, Senior Partner of Rawlinson & Hunter Guernsey, commented:

"Ciaran brings over 20 years of experience operating in the top ranks of the private client industry and his appointment demonstrates our confidence in the continued growth of our practice and our focus on delivering top quality, high touch service to our clients."

Mark Harris, Senior Partner of the London Firm and Chairman of the Rawlinson & Hunter International Grouping commented:

"I was delighted to see Ciaran's promotion to Partner which will provide a clear succession path for the practice in Guernsey and support for the continuing team of directors and staff. I very much look forward to working with him on this important next stage of the Guernsey office development."
