Rawlinson & Hunter Singapore welcomes Chew Gim Leong as Tax Director

Rawlinson & Hunter is delighted to welcome Chew Gim Leong as Tax Director in Singapore.

Gim has over 15 years of experience working in the Singapore tax sphere.

Gim has dealt extensively with a wide variety of tax matters, including advising clients on fund set up, equity fund structures, advising and assisting with tax incentive applications (Section 13X and 13R), family office set ups, corporate restructuring, and cross border issues.

Gim has also advised widely on personal tax matters, withholding tax and international tax planning.

Peter Milnes, Managing Director of R&H in Singapore said “We are delighted to welcome Gim to our expanding tax team in Singapore. He brings with him a great depth of understanding of the Singapore tax framework which will allow us to expand and enhance our already best in class tax advisory and compliance services to our clients. Gim will head up our Tax Services department, and we are very excited to have him as part of our Singapore leadership team.”

Gim holds a Bachelor of Business degree from Nanyang Technological University in Singapore and is an Accredited Tax Advisor with the Singapore Chartered Tax Professionals, Singapore’s tax accreditation body.
